Board of Selectmen

(l to r) . . . Henry D. Hersey, Peter W. Carre, Clarke H. Wertheim, Chairman; Paul F. Saint, Philip F. Foss.

Year	Employees	Budget	Expenditures
1960	1	$14,104.	$14,203.
1961	1	15,792.	14,971.
1962	1	15,697.	14,556.
1963	1	16,229.	15,670.

During 1963 the Board of Selectmen held 40 regular and 2 special meetings by reverting to weekly meetings except during July and August as had been the custom in the past. Numerous conferences were held with various departments under its jurisdiction and with other town boards and committees to carry out the directive of the Town Meetings, as well as in the best interest of good government.

The membership of the board was changed by the retirement of Mrs. Marian F. Keith who had faithfully served the town for many years and by the election of Henry D. Hersey. Another vacancy occurred by the resignation of J. Roland Ackroyd effective May 31, 1963, who also has given faithful service to the town over the years in many capacities. Paul F. Saint was elected to fill this vacancy at the first Special Election in the history of the town on September 16, 1963.

The town was saddened by the sudden death of Harold L. Blaisdell, Town Treasurer and Tax Collector on July 1, 1963, and Robert L. Schneider was appointed by the board to serve until Special Election on September 16, 1963.

Mr. Schneider was successfully elected for the remainder of the term of the previous holder of this office.

One of the major matters resolved this year was the classifying of all municipal employees, as well as members of various boards and committees by May 1, 1963, as required under the Conflict of Interest law, Chapter 268A of the General Laws, an act regulating the activities of state, county, and municipal employees, and establishing a code of ethics for said employees.

Several appointments were made as directed by Town Meeting action and caused by resignations of many faithful citizens such as Herbert L. Moore and the late Enos G. Nickerson, members of the Board of Appeals, both of whom had served the town so ably for many years.

By the action of the Town Meeting in accepting Section 18A of Chapter 90 of the General Laws relative to the adoption of rules regulating the use by pedestrians of ways, the board was authorized to secure permit #3 of the state for the erection of new traffic lights at the corner of Webster Street and Great Plain Avenue, soon to be in operation.

The board has little progress to report on solving the desired location for a new Post Office in the center of the town. Continuing efforts are still being made with the postal authorities and our congressional representatives to endeavor to arrive at a successful conclusion.

Town Hall renovations were completed and it is felt the improvements made will provide a much more efficient operation of the Town Treasurer's office, much needed space on the second floor, as well as giving a better appearance to the town hall lobby. The installation of a sprinkler system providing adequate fire protection has also made a saving in the town's insurance costs.

The board received with regret the resignation of Benjamin Y. Piper, who has served as Town Counsel for six years most faithfully, effective December 31, 1963. William A. Cross, former Chairman of the Board of Appeals, was appointed to succeed Mr. Piper.

The year 1963 was spent in endeavoring to promote a closer community relationship with this Board of Selectmen, and marshalling constructive ideas in the interest of the overall development of the town.

Town Clerk

MARIAN S. PETERSON, Town Clerk

Year	Employees	Budget	Expenditures
1960	3	$16,228.	$15,966.
1961	3	17,407.	17,382.
1962	3	17,705.	17,583.
1963	3	18,665.	18,116.

The Town Clerk is primarily the custodian of those official town records which have been compiled in her office. Records of births, marriages, and deaths, as well as the votes taken at Town Meetings, are complete from the year 1711, when the town was incorporated. In this office the records of the Registrars of Voters are also maintained, as the Town Clerk is clerk, ex-officio, of that board. These include records compiled from the annual street listing, the registration of voters, and the results of all elections held.

Chattel mortgages, including those on automobiles and household furniture, must be recorded and discharged with the Town Clerk. Marriage intentions are filed and marriage licenses issued by this office. Other licenses issued include those for hunting and fishing, dog licenses, and annual renewal permits for the storage of gasoline. Numerous licenses granted by the selectmen are issued by this office.

Many legal requirements at the time of a Town Meeting are discharged by the Town Clerk. All By-Laws voted by the meeting must be submitted to the Attorney-General for his approval. Unless this is obtained, the By-Law does not become effective. The 1963 Town Meeting considered 84 articles and required 4 evenings to complete the town's business.

The Town Clerk has many duties concerning elections, including the processing of nomination papers, the printing of the ballot for town elections, the supervision of election workers, and the compilation of the total vote cast for each candidate.

The Town Clerk's Office is open from 8:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., Monday through Friday, and, for your convenience, on Tuesday evening between the hours of 7:30 and 9:00 P.M.

Year	Budget	Expenditures
1960	$11,655.	$10,691.
1961	14,500.	9,400.
1962	11,000.	9,000.
1963	13,180.	9,230.

The trend toward an increase in litigation has continued throughout the year 1963. In addition to the so-called "Moulton Case", which is a petition by certain abuttors and others for a declaratory judgment to determine the legality of a Town Meeting vote which re-zoned certain land for use as an apartment district, and which is now in the process of being appealed to the Supreme Judicial Court; the town was also involved in a second trial of an appeal from a Board of Appeals decision permitting the operation of a private pool and racquet club in a single residence district, and was successful in having such decision upheld by the Superior Court. Other litigation during 1963 included several appeals from Board of Appeals decisions, an appeal from a decision of the Planning Board approving a subdivision plan, actions brought on behalf of the Glover Memorial Hospital, and actions brought for the Board of Public Welfare.

The number of so-called "street and sidewalk defect cases" involving claims for personal injuries and property damage due to falls allegedly caused by defects in sidewalks and streets, was slightly larger than in prior years with a definite tendency on the part of the claimants to resort to litigation rather than to negotiate settlements. Three of such cases, with substantial damages alleged, are now awaiting trial in the Superior Court.

In addition to representing the town in the above matters, the Town Counsel also performed the following usual duties of his office:

1. Prepared Articles and Motions for the 1963 Annual Town Meeting after consultations with various interested parties.
2. Attended all meetings of Board of Selectmen, as well as meetings of other town boards and committees when requested to do so.
3. Rendered many legal opinions to various town boards, committees, departments and officials, particularly in connection with the so-called "Conflict of Interest Law" which became effective during this year.
4. Approved all bonds, contracts, leases, covenants and other legal documents for the town when requested to do so.
5. Prepared Warrant for Special Election of Selectmen, and Town Treasurer and Tax Collector.

After having held the position for six years, your Town Counsel has resigned effective December 31, 1963 in order to devote more time to the private practice of law. The position has been an interesting and rewarding experience, and I will be glad to be of any assistance possible to my successor, William A. Cross, Esquire, who will assume the duties as Town Counsel on January 1, 1964.

Planning Board

Year	Employees	Budget	Expenditures
1960	2	$6,225.	$4,937.
1961	2	6,750.	5,775.
1962	2	10,900.	9,574.
1963	3	11,110.	10,688.

Your elected Planning Board, fulfilling its responsibility of planning for the orderly development and growth of the town has endeavored to proceed this year within the scope of its authorized powers and duties which are clearly defined in Chapters 40A and 41 of the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Further responsibility of the Planning Board is referred to in the Town of Needham Zoning By-Law, established for the purpose of promoting health, safety, convenience and welfare of the residents of the Town of Needham.

During 1963, the board held forty-three official meetings. In addition, the members of the board contributed considerable additional time viewing the areas involved in subdivisions and other planning problems requiring Planning Board decision and action.

The board held thirteen public hearings which resulted in six recommendations to the 1963 Annual Town Meeting, the disapproval of one subdivision, the approval of four new subdivisions, the abandonment and discontinuance of two private ways. One more subdivision is now pending final action by the Planning Board.

The 1963 Town Meeting, acting on the recommendations of the Planning Board approved amendments to Sections 2, 10 and 20B of the Needham Zoning By-Law and these were subsequently enacted as part of the By-Law.

The Town Meeting also moved forward for the town's future growth by approving the Planning Board's recommendation to complete the flood plain survey. This work is now currently underway by a registered land surveyor.

The Planning Board in 1963 has tried to establish a pattern of action which is intended to be of assistance to all residents of the town in understanding the functions, duties, and, for that matter, the problems that confront the Planning Board on a week-to-week basis. To that end, the Planning Board has established a weekly news release to the local newspapers which informs the town in general of weekly Planning Board actions.

During the early part of 1963, the Planning Board made a preliminary review of the previous 1958 Town Study Report and decided that it was time to proceed towards the development and eventual completion of an up-to-date Town of Needham Master Plan. The preparation of a comprehensive long-range Master Plan for the overall development of the town is one of the principal duties of a Planning Board according to the Massachusetts General Laws.

During the summer of 1963, assisted by the personnel of the Town Engineering Division and a research assistant, employed for the summer months, the Planning Board completed a large scale land use map, also separate maps showing vacant lands, schools and school districts, public lands, past developments and land suitability for development, and other statistical data necessary to promulgate the completion of the Master Plan.

About $2,400. was paid for this work out of the Planning Board's budget, and the value of these studies was estimated at $10,000. by the planners engaged by the board to use these studies in formulating conclusions and recommendations to be incorporated in the Master Plan. These planners (Shurcliff and Merrill) will do as much work as possible with the funds available in 1963 and it is hoped that the 1964 Town Meeting will appropriate sufficient funds to complete this comprehensive Master Plan.

The Planning Board has also obtained aerial photographs of the Town of Needham which are available for review.

The Planning Board completed a review of all problems of common concern with the chairmen of all of the standing committees in the town to coordinate their efforts, and to cooperate to the fullest extent towards the fulfillment of an orderly growth and development of the town.

In October, the Planning Board accepted with regret the resignation of Mrs. Dorothy Russell and was pleased to accept the appointee made jointly with the Board of Selectmen so that the continuity of the Planning Board's work was not broken.

The Planning Board has endeavored to make recommendations to the Board of Appeals on many petitions which involved land usage and variances. The Planning Board will continue to do so, keeping in mind the overall development of the town and the welfare of its residents.

The recent "Moulton Apartment Case" decision handed down by the Superior Court has placed an additional stress on the responsibility of the Planning Board to move forward and complete an up-to-date Master Plan for the guidance of all concerned.

The Planning Board will in the 1964 Town Warrant attempt to conform to the resolution adopted under Article 84 of the 1963 Town Meeting, that the Planning Board include in the reports of Special Committees any and all reasons for proposing zoning changes and their effect upon the town.

Your elected Planning Board welcomes any and all comments by Town Meeting members and town residents in order that our overall duties and responsibilities be fulfilled in a manner most beneficial for the town in general.

Veterans' Services

PHILIP K. GREULING, Agent

Year	Employees	Budget	Expenditures
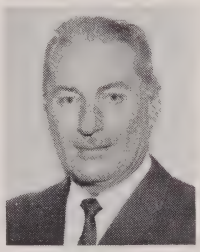
1960	2	$39,217.	$37,142.
1961	2	36,393.	35,118.
1962	2	36,200.	26,111.
1963	2	35,830.	35,718.



The Department of Veterans' Services processed 267 cases in the year 1963. These cases, falling into twenty-six categories, ranged from applications for financial aid to veterans and their dependants to assisting veterans in establishing non-service connected disability pensions from the Federal Government. This office, with the excellent cooperation of our staff of Veterans' Service personnel attached to the Veterans Administration Headquarters in Boston, was successful in establishing all eligible cases in the past year.

Once again we wish to stress the importance of all veterans availing themselves of the facilities of the Veterans Administration Hospitals. The veterans illness need not be service connected. The veterans local physician may call this office for the necessary forms to be filled in to expedite these cases.

Police Department

DANIEL C. HENDERSON, Chief

Year	Employees	Budget	Expenditures
1960	58	$316,560.	$316,560.
1961	58	330,415.	330,415.
1962	56	326,975.	308,408.
1963	58	338,388.	330,100.

The continued growth of our town brings an increase in police duties, not only of the routine, but the unexpected and unforeseen. The efficiency of the department depends on each individual officer under the direction and guidance of the Chief of Police and the superior officers, along with the updating and maintenance of the equipment. Our personnel now consists of the Chief, 1 Lieutenant, 5 Sergeants, 1 Detective, 33 Patrolmen, 15 Women Safety Patrol Crossing Guards, and 1 maintenance man.

The Industrial Center, which is growing every year, has added many problems to the Police Department. Their many alarm systems, parking problems, labor disputes, etc. have all added to the work load of the department.

Annual safety show conducted by the Needham Police in conjunction with the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the School Department. Shown above are Chief Henderson, Walter G. Patterson, Commander William Wilson and Lieut. Roman with the winners of bicycles, Ann Mahoney and Steven Shapiro.

Route 128, with its increase in traffic flow has had two fatal accidents this year and continues to be a source of many accidents which must be handled by this department.

The much discussed subject of "Juvenile Delinquency" is still with us. The average youngster has many problems in this world as it is today. It is unjust to identify all teenagers as "juvenile delinquents" because of the troublesome few. We, in the Town of Needham, do not have a serious problem as far as juvenile delinquency is concerned.

Needham Civil Defense

Julius T. Fedel, Director

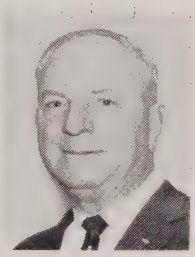
Year	Salary	Capital Outlay	Expenses
1960	$2,681.	—	$1,680.
1961	2,790.	$5,047.	3,293.
1962	2,852.	6,025.	7,629.
1963	3,406.	13,448.	7,281.



Program papers for the Town of Needham Civil Defense were submitted immediately after Town Meeting of 1963, but due to federal fiscal year closing June 30, no funds were available. Program papers for fiscal year 1963 and 1964 were submitted in early July and official notification for eligibility for matching funds was received October 3, 1963. Needham was the second town in Massachusetts that met specifications requested by the federal government.

Our Communications Division under Deputy G. Bradford Tiffany held monthly meetings, state tests, and simulated alerts, as well as giving communications support to the Fire and Police Departments, hospital and underwater rescue under actual operational conditions. Emergency Operations Center facilities were augmented by new radio, telephone, maintenance, and status display equipment. Federal matching funds applications covering the generator and antenna projects, pending since the March Town Meeting, were finally approved just after Christmas by OCD Region 1. Federal surplus property was investigated and utilized to a limited extent.

Generators, handie talkies, lights and other equipment were used during the year for various emergencies by the Fire Auxiliary headed by Deputy J. Charles Nute, Jr. Additional emergency rescue equipment has been added for training purposes.

Medical self-help courses were conducted and completed by the instructors Mrs. Thomas A. Stebbins, Mrs. Alex Prohodski and Mrs. William J. Tedoldi. The total number of graduated in Medical Self-help was 103. Future courses will be underway in January, 1964. Two disaster exercises were held in conjunction with Glover Memorial Hospital.

Civil Defense received, as of January 1, 1964, the resignation of Deputy Philip C. Welsh, Radiological Division, due to pressing business affairs. Morton S. Parker has been appointed deputy of this very important branch. Classes have been conducted during the past year, one additional monitering station added, and more equipment supplied by the government.

The Survival Committee that was appointed by the town reverted in its entirety to the Civil Defense under our Shelter Division consisting of Deputy Louis Sutro, Assistant Deputy Augustus Rogowski, Morton Parker, Robert V. Condon M.D., Gordon Martin, Edward Hill and Charles Wyckoff. In addition to a series of articles that appeared in the press, a brochure entitled "You Bet Your Life" was printed and distributed to every home in Needham. Our thanks go to the Boy Scouts organization for the distribution of this pamphlet.

Underwater Rescue Division headed by Deputy Lt. Louis Roman has conducted their regular monthly training programs throughout the past year and answered various emergency calls. In April they responded to a call to search and remove a car from the Charles River, and in June searched for some stolen silverware in the river at the request of the Dover Police. A demonstration in water safety was put on for the town of Weston in August as well as various lectures in other nearby towns.

Dr. Joseph King "works on" a patient in mock Civil Defense disaster staged by Glover Memorial Hospital officials and workers, together with "volunteer victims" from Needham High School.

Board of Appeals

The year 1963 has been one of changes in membership of the Board of Appeals. Early in the year S. Gilbert Tattersall and the late Enos G. Nickerson submitted their resignations to the Board of Selectmen. Mr. Nickerson had served on this Board since 1949 and Mr. Tattersall since 1954.

As of July 1st, 1963, the resignation of Herbert L. Moore, who had served as chairman for 12 years, became effective. Member William A. Cross was elected to serve for the remainder of the year as chairman.

During the month of December, Mr. Cross was appointed as Town Counsel and member W. Bigelow Hall was elected to serve as chairman for the coming year. Alexander Prohodski became the third regular board member and Paul Dunn was appointed by the Selectmen as the second special member.

The Board heard 46 petitions during the year. These applications all came under the Zoning By-Law and covered such problems as sideline setbacks, division of lots below area requirements, two minor flood plain problems, signs in the industrial area of the town, and six under Special Uses Control including a request for heliport landing pad in the industrial zone, nursing home, commercial garages, parking areas, and other miscellaneous applications.

The Board made 34 favorable decisions, 9 applications were denied and 1 was dismissed without prejudice pending final determination of flood plain area.

Finance Committee

The Finance Committee consists of nine registered voters, none of whom shall be town employees or officers. After each Town Meeting, the Moderator appoints three members to serve for three years. The committee elects its own chairman, vice-chairman, and executive secretary. The committee also has one or more appointments or reappointments to make to almost every study committee, building committee, or other special committee established by the Town Meeting.

Warrant Articles calling for appropriations are referred to the Finance Committee. Budgets of the various town departments, boards, and committees are also submitted to the committee, which then examines and studies the various warrant articles and budgets. After examining the articles and budgets and after meetings with the various heads of town departments, boards, and committees, the Finance Committee submits its recommendations to the Town Meeting. Finance Committee recommendations are designed to provide an adequate level of town services at a reasonable cost and to provide for a reasonable expansion of these town services. The committee recommendations include not only dollar amounts for all categories within each budget but also the manner in which all appropriations should be financed. The Finance Committee has sole authority to transfer money from the Reserve Fund for use by the various town departments in the event unforeseen or emergency circumstances arise.

The Finance Committee, when considering Capital Budget items, relies heavily on its sub-committee, the Capital Budget Committee, for its recommendations. This year's sub-committee consists of: Wilson F. Payne, Chairman; W. Randolph Taylor, V. Chairman; Philip A. Christophe, Frederick Bailey II, Mrs. Charles E. Downe, and Bruce A. MacPherson.

The Finance Committee must have as complete a picture and understanding as is possible of the town's financial condition both present and projected in order to make its recommendations to the Town Meeting.

Board of Assessors

Year	Employees	Budget	Expenditures
1960	4	$30,492.	$30,437.
1961	4	36,025.	35,388.
1962	4	37,191.	36,602.
1963	4	38,934.	38,740.

In 1963 the State Department of Corporations and Taxation by vote of the Legislature made certain changes in the billing procedures of the motor vehicle excise. This change has caused considerable trouble for the taxpayers and the Board of Assessors.

A great many errors in the motor vehicle excise are due to lack of care in checking the registration application. Failure to give adequate information as to the year of manufacture, model, vehicle identification number, and engine number creates errors in placing values for assessment by the State Excise Division.

The only reasons for filing an application for an excise abatement are sale or transfer of ownership of the motor vehicle or over-valuation. Sale or transfer in this case actually means the sale or transfer of the vehicle to a new owner. This also includes the transfer of the registration plates to another car or the return of the plates to the Registry. An over-valuation might occur on a tax because of lack of information on your registration.

It should be borne in mind that when a taxpayer is seeking an abatement on his excise he should have his bill number with him in order to file his application.

Memorial Park Trustees

Year	Employees Perm.	Temp.	Budget (Including Capital Outlay)	Expenditures
1960	1	6	$18,540.	$18,524.
1961	1	6	23,484.	23,180.
1962	1	6	26,200.	26,314.
1963	1	6	20,219.	20,174.

The year 1963 saw the use of Memorial Park at its maximum capacity. All the various high school athletic activities and the graduation exercises were held on the park. Summer baseball and soft-ball teams, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars annual carnivals were held there. Also the mammoth 4th of July town celebration sponsored by the Needham Exchange Club took place on the park. It was estimated that 25,000 people viewed the fireworks display.

The spring and fall droughts were long and intense. These taxed the sprinkling system to its utmost. In spite of these conditions, the fields, trees and shrubbery have remained in excellent condition.

Mr. Harold Pike completed 25 years of faithful and dedicated service to Memorial Park, serving as superintendent. He is largely responsible for the fact that the No. 1 football field and the No. 1 baseball diamond are second to none in the country. His expert knowledge in the care of trees and shrubs enhances the beauty of the park and its memorial. His intense pride and interest in the park, plus his willingness to put in 60 hours a week will make it extremely difficult to replace him when he retires.

The trustees have appointed Thomas Wilson as foreman with the expectation that he will learn Mr. Pike's "know-how."

The Board of Trustees lost three valuable members. Lester Huse and Norman Gledhill resigned because they felt there was a conflict of interest involved. Mr. Douglas Lowden moved out of town. Joint meetings of the trustees and the Board of Selectmen resulted in the appointment of Andrew Savignano and Frederick Whetton to fill these vacancies. Mr. Whetton has served as secretary to the board since his appointment.

Needham Post 14, American Legion approached the trustees with a plan for enlarging their meeting room. They are willing to pay a substantial amount of the cost. There is a great need for dressing rooms and showers for visiting athletes. Therefore the trustees believe a joint effort with the town in such a plan would be to the mutual advantage of everybody. The trustees will present plans for the consideration at the next town meeting.

Personnel Committee

Based upon a study of wage and salary trends, including the cost-of-living index, in the metropolitan Boston area, the Personnel Committee recommends a 3% general pay increase for all town employees under the committee's jurisdiction as well as for all paid elected officers for the year 1964. This includes all town employees except personnel of the School Department, Glover Memorial Hospital and the Welfare Department.

The cost of the proposed increase is approximately $52,623. which represents an increase of about 60 cents in the town's tax rate.

Application of the increase will result in maintaining Needham's pay scale in a highly favorable position in comparison to surrounding communities of like size. This will enable the town to recruit and hold qualified personnel in the competitive market for skilled employees.

During the year the Personnel Committee effected a number of reclassifications to eliminate impending inequities within the compensation structure. These reclassifications are listed at the back of the Town Warrant and are subject to Town Meeting's approval.

The complete cooperation of town departments represented in the many hearings held by the Personnel Committee is appreciated. Without exception, department heads and other employee representatives presented well-prepared and factual statements, enabling the committee to arrive at prompt and objective findings in each case.

Also valuable in reaching decisions by the committee was the observance of job duties and discussion with town employees of the various requirements of their positions.

Contributory Retirement Board

The Needham Contributory Retirement Board meets in the Town Hall the last Thursday of each month. At these meetings the board approves applications for retirement, applications for membership, and requests for refund of accumulated deductions of members leaving the employ of the town. The board is responsible for all monies deducted from the salaries of the members, and as of December 31, 1963, the total amount of all investments was $1,211,981.71

Income received from these investments is applied against the deposits to the credit of the members which in 1963 was 3.4%. At the end of 1963, there were 598 active members, 23 inactive members, and 78 pensioners, including eight retired under the Veterans Act. Roger G. Oakman is retiring as the second member of the Retirement System at the end of 1963, and Kenneth J. McCulloch at a regular authorized election held December 20, 1963, is the new second member. The State Auditors have verified and audited the records of the retirement books for the years 1960, 1961 and 1962. The average earned rate has been determined to be 3.5% for the calendar year 1964.

Board of Health

Year	Employees	Budget	Expenditures
1960	13	$70,963.	$66,790.
1961	13	76,113.	74,918.
1962	13	95,161.	91,006.
1963	13	123,927.	120,787.

Following the election of Dr. Kenneth Christophe, the Needham Board of Health organized with Dr. Christophe as chairman, Dr. John D. Fernald, secretary, and Mrs. Leslie B. Cutler as the third member. Ten board meetings were held during the year.

The garbage collection difficulties of the past years appear to be solved by the hiring of a new garbage contractor. The number of complaints received during the past year has been minimal, and it is hoped that the services of the same contractor will be available again in 1964.

Follow-up Sabin Oral Polio Clinics took precedence over other immunization clinics during the past year. A high percentage of Needham residents availed themselves of the opportunity to sip Types I, II, and III Sabin vaccine. A total of 17,220 drinks were consumed, and it is hoped that the Town of Needham will be free from any polio outbreak in the future because of the splendid participation of the residents in this connection. The Board of Health staff has worked untiringly to bring the best possible protection to the town, and they wish at this time to express their appreciation to the school nurses, Red Cross, Visiting Nurse Association, and volunteers, who gave of their time and effort to help these clinics to be successful. Our Public Health Nurses, Mrs. Helen C. Kuhn and Mrs. Mary F. Barnicle worked long and tedious hours on this immunization protection against poliomyelitis.

It was necessary, due to the work load and increase in our population to add a second full time Public Health Nurse to our staff. Mrs. Mary F. Barnicle had been employed as a Public Health Nurse on a part time basis, assigned to the parochial school program. Mrs. Barnicle now assists Mrs. Kuhn, in addition to carrying on a school health program in the parochial schools.

In June, 1963, the Lions Club, in cooperation with the Board of Health, conducted an eye testing program for a safe driving survey. The response was most gratifying. One hundred and thirty persons had their eyes checked. The board also cooperated with the Lions Club in conducting two Glaucoma Detection Clinics where a total of one hundred and thirty people were examined.

Co-Operative Boards of Health . . . Needham is a member of the Co-Operative Boards of Health. A study is now being made as to the possibility of organizing the Co-Operative Boards of Health into a Union Board of Health. Under this plan it is felt that there will be a saving to the town by combining into one general office, thus avoiding duplication of expenditures.

Community Health Center . . . Your Board of Health is working on an application for a federal project to conduct a survey of the health services in the town. The ultimate goal of this survey is a Community Health Center using federal funds.

Training . . . Your Board of Health is pleased to announce that our facilities have been selected by the Boston College School of Nursing as a training resource for their student nurses in 1964. Arrangements were discussed during the fall of 1963.

Homemaker's Course . . . This is a new project in the nutrition program. The State Department of Public Health has organized groups of women who are trained to take over the responsibilities of a family when a mother is incapacitated. Our nutritionist has cooperated with the state in planning as well as training women in this program.

Nutrition . . . The emphasis of the nutrition program is based on the health needs of the community, and every effort is made to meet these needs as effectively as possible. The schools continue to be recognized as one of the best areas for nutrition and education. Leaders in the field of nutrition are of the opinion that good nutrition should be established in childhood. Teen-age weight control has continued to receive considerable attention from our nutritionist. In the field of diet therapy, cases are referred by the doctors, hospitals, visiting and school nurses. The number of patients has continued to increase. Individual diets are worked out for these patients. Our nutritionist attends all Well Child Conferences and uses this means to give suggestions to improve the diets of families. The nutritionist is available for consultation by all town agencies.

Tuberculin Testing Program . . . During the month of May, pre-school admission skin testing program with Tine Tests was introduced by your Board of Health and proved to be a tremendous success. The Tine Test is a new tuberculin test. This is a very simple test in which a "thimble like" instrument which has four prongs impregnated with "Old Tuberculin" is pressed on a cleansed area of the forearm. The reaction is "read" in 72 hours.

Day Care Centers . . . By law all Day Centers are now licensed by the state. Delegated powers have been given to such agencies that have sufficient personnel to inspect these centers. It is the duty of the public health nurse to inspect, consult and enforce these rules and regulations. There are nine Day Care Centers in Needham with an enrollment of 150 children.

Well Child Conference . . . Well Child Conferences are held on the second Tuesday of each month at the American Legion Hall under the direction of Dr. Sumner Hoffman and the Public Health Nurse. Forty-six families made 145 visits to the clinics. The American Red Cross and volunteers from the New Century Club assisted with registration, transportation, weighing, and measuring.

Communicable Disease . . . There were two new cases and one re-activated case of tuberculosis in 1963. A total of 394 patient days were spent at Norfolk County Hospital at a cost of $3,788.00. In 1962 the cost to the town was $37,022.41. Two hundred and thirty-nine visits were made by the Nurse in behalf of tuberculosis. An increase in salmonella (15 cases) necessitated 51 visits while infectious hepatitis had a decline.

Health Guidance . . . Ten premature babies were reported to the Board of Health. No financial aid was needed. A total of 994 calls were made by our Public Health Nurse to mothers, new babies, and children under twenty years of age. Referrals were made to Norfolk Guidance Center, Family Service, Heart Clinic, Children's Speech Clinic, Day Care Centers, and Camp Wonderland.

Asian Flu Vaccine was given to town employees in January (300) and October (235).

Environmental Sanitation . . . Upon complaint and routinely, the Sanitarian investigates, evaluates, and attempts to attain solution for final disposition a multiplicity of nuisances, concerned with environmental health. These deal in part with: housing, restaurant and eating establishment control, dumping, air pollution, sewage effluent discharging onto surface of the ground, vermin and rodent control and advice, noxious odors and gasses, specific garbage complaints and follow-ups, drainage problems, municipal sewerage wants and demands and surveys thereto, stream pollution conditions and a complexity of complaints so varied they perhaps border on the ludicrous.

The normal environmental health program encompasses the routine inspection, investigation, evaluation and follow-up of markets, restaurants, milk pasteurization plants, food processing establishments, carbonated and other associated soft drink bottling plants, review and approval of public and private swimming pool installations, motel operations, day camp installations, food poisoning complaints and epidemiological study of same, survey of existing facilities for local rubbish and garbage disposal, Rosemary Beach bathing area examination and control, subdivision evaluation, sub-surface sewage disposal installation, review and approval, and a continued list of other functions and activities that for the sake of brevity must be deleted. Specific details as to these duties, activities, and functions are on file at the Board of Health Office.

Mosquito Control Project . . . The Needham Mosquito Control Project was carried on most efficiently in 1963. It is planned to continue with the project to supplement work done by the Norfolk County Mosquito Control Project.

Dental Clinic . . . The Needham Dental Clinic enjoyed a high level of success during the past year, and the staff did an excellent job for the town's eligible youngsters.

Statistics for 1963 include:

Fillings	769	Extractions	53
X-rays	234	Cleanings	225
Treatments	87

Dog Clinic . . . The annual clinic for the immunization of dogs against rabies was held in May, 1963, with a total of 320 dogs being given antirabic vaccine. This vaccine is effective for a three year period.

Communicable Diseases for the year 1963

Chickenpox	379	Infectious Hepatitis	4
Dog bites	134	Measles	3
Mouse bites	3	Meningitis (other)	1
Squirrel bites	1	Mumps	133
Rabbit bites	2	Dysentery Bacillary	1
Chipmunk bites	1	Salmonella	15
Cat bites	8	Scarlet Fever	39
Hamster bites	1	Syphilis	1
German Measles	962	Tuberculosis—Pul	2
		Total	1,720

It is to be noted that there were a total of 134 dog bites reported in 1963. We again emphasize the importance of immunizing dogs at the dog clinics conducted by the Board of Health in the spring of each year.

1961	1	4	16,097.	14,837.

1963	1	4	15,186.	8,891.

At the Town Election held on March 4, 1963, 6721 votes were cast which represented 45.6% of those eligible to vote.

At the Special Town Election on September 16, 1963, 4180 votes were cast which represented 29.5% of those eligible to vote. This is the first time in the recollection of any citizen of Needham that a Special Election was held. This election was held to fill a vacancy on the Board of Selectmen and in the Office of Town Treasurer.

1964 will witness four elections: The Town Election, Presidential Primary, State Primary, Combined State and National Election. Evening sessions for registration of voters will be held before each election in 1964 at publicly designated times and places. The Town Clerk's Office is open for the registering of new voters on Mondays through Fridays from 8:30 A.M. to 5 P.M. and on Tuesday Evenings from 7:30 to 9. Naturalized citizens must always have their naturalization papers with them when registering to vote. People who are unable to register at the public sessions for reasons of health or confinement to a hospital or nursing home within the town, may make an appointment with the Town Clerk. Registrars will call and register the individual.

Absentee voting is governed by the provisions of the Acts of 1963 Chapter 111 which provides "In the case of a voter who on the day of the election will be absent from the city or town where he is registered, such ballot shall be mailed to a municipality OTHER THAN the city or town where he is registered." These ballots cannot be mailed to a Needham address in the future.

Provisions have been made under Chapter 437 of Acts of 1962 for individuals who have recently moved into the state to vote for Presidential Electors. This Chapter provides that a person who has resided in Massachusetts less than a year but in Needham not less than thirty-two days preceding the election may vote for Presidential Electors only on a special ballot at the November election. Massachusetts has now joined the few states that have made this provision for those who move into the state.

On June 3, 1963, when the annual revision of the Voting List was completed, there were 14,160 voters on the List. These voters are distributed in the six precincts as follows:

Precinct	Polling Place	Voters
1	Highland Avenue Jr. High School	1360
2	Harris School	2164
3	Pollard Junior High School	2366

Needham Housing Authority

The Needham Housing Authority, as part of their program, has endeavored to make public housing a more attractive community asset. The authority's essential aim is to aid veterans in obtaining homes of their own. In the interim, they are provided with adequate housing. During the past year, ten veterans and their families have moved into their own homes.

On March 15, 1963, the authority welcomed forty-six new tenants for occupancy in the forty new apartments of the addition to Linden Terrace. The tenants are selected for eligibility under existing laws and regulations. These apartments have been designed to meet the needs of elderly people, but also with certain limitations necessary to meet the cost limits of publicly sponsored housing. In each apartment, emergency buzzers have been placed in bedrooms and bathrooms enabling tenants to contact their neighbors for any emergency.

An attractive Community Room is available for all functions. Many of the furnishings have been donated by civic-minded organizations and individuals in Needham.

Residing in Linden Terrace will be, for most people, a new experience in life where they will share with many other families and the Housing Authority the mutual obligation to make this development a pleasant and charming example of community life in our Town of Needham.

Council For The Aging

The Needham Council for the Aging was created by vote of Town Meeting in 1957. Prior to 1963, activities were confined to areas of housing and recreation. In 1963 the Selectmen urged a broader program. The present Council has met regularly each month this year and extended its activities into the areas of adult education, part-time employment, health, as well as recreation (including travel).

In early 1964 it is planned to open an Information Center for Retired (and Semi-Retired) People where information on these various programs, opportunities, and activities will be available and where all of the local services directed (specifically or incidentally) to older people will be coordinated. The Y.M.C.A. is permitting us to use a first floor room for this purpose and the office will be staffed by volunteers. The Lions Club has donated $400 toward purchase of our furnishings.

Cooperating organizations and individuals will be directed to a field of service where their skills and interests can solve a problem.

The Council is devoted to advising, counselling, and making more readily available the opportunities which retired people want and need in order to pursue their interests, activities, and education in a manner geared to their time and abilities, and wherever possible directed by themselves. In fact, the Council tries to function in any or all phases of retired living where experience points to a need. In order to do this as a town-wide project we urge participation by societies and organizations as well as by individuals.

Park and Recreation Commission

Year	Perm.	Temp.	Budget	Expenditures
1960	60	25	$72,130.	$69,709.
1961	60	25	93,664.	91,136.
1962	63	25	95,248.	85,645.
1963	63	25	94,155.	89,324.

In submitting its Annual Report for 1963, the members of the Park and Recreation Commission would like to remind the citizens of the town that the function of the Commission includes maintenance and upkeep of the town park lands as well as providing a year-round recreational program for all age groups.

The summer of 1963 saw a new venture launched at the High Rock woods area with the addition of a "Day Camp" program. This proved to be very popular and we look forward to increased enrollment for 1964. Facilities in the area have been improved to allow for increased use of this location as a major "all seasons" recreational center.

The regular playground program continued to operate in thirteen areas and required a staff of forty-seven full time employees for the seven week period.

Rosemary Beach, as usual, proved to be the most popular activity and the total attendance rose from 44,809 to 45,499. The water safety and swimming instruction classes, under the auspices of the Red Cross, enrolled 11,809. These courses have grown to such proportions that they will, of necessity, become an integral part of the recreational budget in 1964.

The winter program continues to expand with more and more of the townspeople taking an interest in the out-of-doors activities. The open skating areas are very popular with all age groups and the Saturday night "Family Skating" parties at the Tabor Rink are well attended. The ski tow and coasting areas at Memorial Park are operating at maximum capacity and provide recreation for hundreds of Needham residents.

The winter indoor program continues to grow in popularity with 264 being registered in the fall term of the Adult Education Program. Adult recreation encompasses volleyball, basketball and badminton. The Youth Canteen occupies the boys' gym at the Senior High School on Saturday evenings to provide dancing and other recreational activities when there is no scheduled activity at the school. A monthly dance is held at each of the two Junior High Schools. Gym classes are offered for both boys and girls from the fourth grade through senior high.

Other groups sponsored by the Park and Recreation Commission include the Philharmonic Orchestra, the Community Theatre, the Needham Toastmistress Club, and the Softball Leagues.

The town's growing population continues to place increasingly heavy demands on presently available recreational areas, and it is imperative that these and other areas be expanded as rapidly as is possible with the funds at our disposal. To this end, the Park and Recreation Commission has developed, improved, and added to present facilities in almost every area and by careful programming has been able to expand both planned recreational activities and open play time.

In closing, the Commission wishes to commend Mr. Philip H. Claxton, Director, and Mrs. Charles A. Stark, Secretary, for their excellent supervision and administration of the entire program. Their combined efforts have contributed greatly to a most successful year.

Year	Empl.	Total Books Loaned	Budget	Expenditures
1960	15	272,576	$115,612.	$102,301.
1961	15	283,513	118,073.	108,596.
1962	15	328,961	126,338.	121,848.
1963	16	339,746	148,371.	138,250.

Records continue to be broken at the Needham Public Library as statistics for the year 1963 are evaluated. 339,746 books and magazines were circulated, 186,942 from the adult department and 124,614 from the children's department, showing an increase of 10,785 over 1962. The Circulation Department filled 6,979 reserves or 230 more than were ever previously filled, and 10,091 overdue notices were sent, an increase of 1,442 over 1962. The Catalog Department cataloged a total of 7,679 books during the year, 5,526 going to the Adult and Teen-Age Departments, and 2,153 going to the Children's Department.

The ever-increasing use of the library can be explained partly by the growing number of adults who are continuing their education both formally and informally, and the demands placed upon the library by elementary and secondary students. During 1963, the Trustees and Librarian, Mrs. McIver, carefully appraised the situation, and in October, drew up a written policy concerning the Needham Public Library's role in student education. Understanding that the public library must serve the entire community from the pre-schooler to the senior citizen, the Trustees and Mrs. McIver attempted to clarify the role of the Needham Public Library regarding the specific needs of students. Student pressure on libraries is of national concern and Mrs. Margaret Heaps, Library Trustee, and Mrs. McIver, attended the American Library Association Convention in Chicago, during the week of July 15, to participate in a three day conference which was "an inquiry into the needs of students, libraries and the educational process". On the community level, Mrs. McIver and members of her staff have met monthly with Mrs. Wagner, School Library Supervisor, and other school librarians to study materials needed for the school curriculum.

The Librarian and her staff attended several meetings during the year of the Massachusetts Library Association and the New England Library Association. Mrs. McIver, as President of the Greater Boston Public Library Administrators, attended monthly meetings of this group, and in September, held the meeting of the Administrators in the Community Room of the library. Mr. Kenneth Shaffer, Director of the Simmons College Graduate School of Library Science was the guest speaker.

During 1963, Mrs. McIver's monthly book talks were very well attended with a total of 60 people registered. The Librarian has also given several book reviews to the following groups in Needham and neighboring communities: in January, to a woman's club in Wilmington, and to the American Home Committee of the Needham New Century Club; in February, to the West Suburban Chapter, No. 1147 Women's B'nai Brith; and in April, to the Women's group of the Lutheran Church. On November 7, Mrs. McIver gave a talk to the members of the Old Colony Library Club on how to give an oral book review and on December 4, Mrs. McIver addressed members of the P.S.A. on the role of the public library in student education.

During the year the Reference Librarian, Mrs. Nancy Dunnan, has devoted most of her efforts toward guiding the general public in their quest for reading materials, factual and statistical data, and general information. The Reference Department is now answering between twenty and twenty-five questions daily, many of which come over the telephone. A regular article on new acquisitions is written for the local newspapers and a title index to plays appearing in Theatre Arts Magazine has been compiled by the Reference Librarian for the card catalog.

To further the reference service of the Library, the Reference Department during 1963 has made many additions to its shelves of which the following are a few:

American Medical Association Directory, Encyclopedia of Mental Health, International Handbook of Universities, Pictorial Encyclopedia of Exotic Plants, Dun and Bradstreet's Million Dollar Directory, Dun and Bradstreet's Half Million Dollar Directory, Newton City Directory, Harper's Encyclopedia of Science, Painting in the Twentieth Century, Encyclopaedic Dictionary of Physics, Contemporary Authors, Oxford English Dictionary.

Mrs. Bliss, Teen-age Librarian, finds that the student use of the library's resources — books, periodicals, reference materials, and other tools — constantly increasing due to the educational trend from textbook teaching to independent study, broad reading programs, research papers, and projects in every field.

In order to meet the needs of the young adult group, intensive buying was carried on in 1963 in the fields of literature, science, mathematics, and history in order to build up the library's collection in these areas.

The Young Adult collection itself has now been enriched so that the teen-ager is able to find much of the material that he requires in the youth room and in many cases this material is more than adequate for his needs.

The Teen-age Department has developed extra tools, available from the Teen-age Librarian upon request, which have proven extremely helpful. These tools include historical fiction files, list of secondary sources for research papers, and lists of directions interpreting the Dewey Decimal system in the American and English Literature fields.

Of the 30,000 volumes in the fields of literature, science, mathematics, and history which circulated during 1963, a large percentage was borrowed by the young adults. During the school year over 1000 periodicals were borrowed monthly. The circulation of books, especially in the above mentioned areas, shows a program of great activity in this department.

Mrs. Bliss wishes to stress to students and parents that the librarians are always glad to be of service in guidance and selection of library materials.

The Children's Department continues to keep pace with other areas of the library, and one day last fall actually circulated more books than the Adult Department.

Children's Room at the Main Library.

In July, Miss Rosalind Minn, Children's Librarian, was added to the staff of the Children's Department. She joins Mrs. Roberta Gerlach, Children's Librarian, and Mrs. Corinne Henry, Assistant Children's Librarian.

Reference and readers advisory work is steadily increasing in the Children's Room due largely to added homework assignments, more reading for enrichment, and summer reading lists for the elementary student. A fine and close cooperation exists between the library and school department which is most beneficial to the library in determining the purchase of books best suited to the elementary child.

An extensive amount of work was carried on with school children in 1963. Fourteen classes with an overall attendance of 420 visited the Children's Room of the library to obtain instruction in the use of the public library and its facilities. The Children's Librarian visited nine elementary schools and fifty-four classes with a total 1350 students. Thirty-seven deposits, consisting of 1110 books, were sent to the schools. Book deposits were also sent to the school playgrounds during the summer and to the Needham Dental Clinic.

The pre-school story hours continue to be very popular and again over 140 children were enrolled. The Summer Reading Club had an enrollment of 35 with 15 children receiving a certificate for finishing the required reading.

Several staff changes occurred during 1963. Miss Irene Hamel, Assistant Librarian, left to take a position as cataloger for the U.S. Naval Department in Washington, D.C. Mrs. Ruth Strassberg, Children's Librarian, left to study for her Master's degree at Boston University, and Miss Gail Swanson, Library Assistant, left to be married. Mrs. Julia Fitzpatrick, Teen-Age Librarian, was appointed Assistant Librarian, Mrs. Roberta Gerlach was hired to replace Mrs. Strassberg, Mrs. Lucy Bliss, Branch Librarian, was appointed Teen-Age Librarian, and Mrs. Doris Haskel, formerly Library Assistant, was appointed Branch Librarian.

Mrs. Mary Fernald, Library Trustee, made a comprehensive survey of the Branch Library during the early months of 1963 and the results proved that the branch serves a definite purpose and is very popular with the Needham residents who use it.

During the year several books were given to the library in memory of departed relatives and friends. In April, the Junior New Century Club presented the Community Room of the library with an American Flag and a gold flag pole. In June, Mrs. Evan Thorpe gave one of her watercolor paintings to the library, and in October, Mr. and Mrs. Michael DiPoli gave the library a most interesting color photograph taken by a naval officer of the ill-fated submarine Thresher. Both of these are now hanging in the Library's Adult Reading Room. The Trustees and Librarian accepted these gifts with gratitude, and are grateful to the townspeople for their interest and support of the Needham Library.

The Trustees of the Glover Memorial Hospital are responsible legally and morally for the quality of patient care in the hospital, including the quality of medical care. Nothing less than the highest possible efficiency will enable the hospital to fulfill its obligations to those whose lives have been entrusted to its care. In keeping with this objective, the Trustees during the year purchased a General Electric Portable X-Ray machine, and set up and equipped a recovery room to handle four or five patients and hired a full time Pharmacist.

Helen I. Linane, Superintendent of Nurses for twenty years at the hospital, passed away May 9, 1963. Under her direction, the patients were assured of the best nursing services available. In her passing, the Trustees and the Town of Needham have lost a loyal employee and friend. In her place, the Trustees appointed Miss Jean Lawson who took over the duties of Director of Nurses on November 4, 1963.

The Hospital Aid Association has established the "Helen I. Linane Memorial Fund" to provide a suitable memorial in her memory in the new hospital addition. Contributions to this fund should be sent to the hospital.

Again the Trustees express their appreciation to the administrative and nursing staffs, to all volunteer workers, to the Senior Citizens, Girl Scouts, and to all other civic-minded organizations for the part they have played in establishing the fine reputation which the Glover Memorial Hospital now enjoys both among patients and doctors.

The Trustees acknowledge with appreciation, gifts or equipment this year from the Hospital Aid Association and the Needham Rotary Club.

We wish to call your attention again to the Permanent Donation Fund, the principal and income of which is used for better patient care. We welcome your contributions to this fund.

The annual report for 1963 . . . a record of some of the events of special interest and importance.

The year 1963 must be further defined for a school system. It includes the end of the 1962-1963 school year, events occurring during the summer period, and the beginning of a new 1963-1964 school year. For the educator, this overlap of time has special significance, because it calls to his attention two points:

Education does not stop . . . nor does it simply start . . . it continues.

The very process of education emphasizes the veneration that it deserves. In the past . . . in the present . . . and for the future it represents the hope of mankind.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Graduation . . . In June of 1963, 344 seniors received their diplomas. They represented the second largest class ever to have graduated from Needham High School. Four out of five members of this graduating class went on to some form of further education; fifty per cent were accepted at four-year colleges.

Enrollment . . . In September, 6208 pupils were enrolled in nine elementary schools, two junior high schools, and one high school. This figure represented an increase of 315 students over enrollment figures of September, 1962.

The perennial problem of grade distribution again faced the schools at the elementary level. Some schools were confronted with an overflow of children at one grade level while other schools found a similar problem at other grade levels. This probem of logistics, if it may be called that, will be partially solved with the opening in September of 1964 of the Highland Avenue building as an elementary unit.

Junior high school population was well within the combined capacity of both junior high schools.

The enrollment at the high school in September reached 1300. This figure represented an increase of fifty pupils over the previous school year, and highlights the need for planning now for an addition to the high school. A room utilization study gave further documentation of this fact. The majority of classrooms were being used 100% of the time. (According to the American Association of School Administrators, an effective utilization factor is 80%.)

School Plant . . . For the past decade each annual school report has recorded the need for additional school facilities. First, elementary schools were required, and then junior high schools. In 1963 the problem of an addition to the high school was thrust upon the School Committee because of the size of the high school pupil enrollment.

After thorough study of the present use of the high school, pupil and town population projections, and curriculum, the School Committee officially requested the Future School Needs Committee to study the need for an addition to the high school, and to take proper action to bring this matter to the attention of the 1964 Town Meeting.

PERSONNEL

Resignations . . . The year 1963 saw fifty-one resignations from teachers throughout the school system. Of that number, four were known to have accepted better paying positions in other school systems; the rest found it necessary to resign for various other reasons.

Retirements . . . In June of 1963 the Needham School Committee and the Town honored seven distinguished teachers who had announced their retirement after long careers in Needham, totaling 213 years. In their lives and service to others, they have exemplified the finest and best in one of man's most noble callings.

Miss Alice C. Gates, Biology, Needham High School, and formerly Director of Science . . . after thirty-eight years in Needham.

Miss Clara A. Dray, Stephen Palmer School . . . after thirty-eight years in Needham.

Miss Louise L. Steele, English Department, Needham High School . . . after thirty-seven years in Needham.

Miss Ruth C. Harrington, Director of Foreign Languages . . . after thirty-seven years in Needham.

Miss Gertrude Lewis, Head of the Commercial Department, Needham High School . . . after thirty-four years in Needham.

Mrs. Elizabeth L. Linscott, teacher of English and Social Studies, Newman Junior High School . . . after seventeen years in Needham.

Mrs. Viola D. Harris, Carter Avery School . . . after twelve years in Needham.

Award . . . In September, it was announced that Miss Anna P. Fessenden, formerly Director of Mathematics, had been selected by the Awards Jury of the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge to receive the Valley Forge Classroom Teachers Medal. This award is designed to honor classroom teachers throughout the United States who are doing exceptional work in teaching responsible citizenship and a better understanding of the American way of life.

Miss Anna P. Fessenden, formerly Director of Mathematics, receiving the Valley Forge Classroom Teachers Medal, from Superintendent William M. Powers.

Appointments . . . Miss Helen A. DeGere, as Director of Foreign Languages. Miss DeGere came to Needham from the Silver Lake Regional High School at Kingston, Massachusetts, where she had been Head of the Language Department for the past six years.

Mr. Benjamin H. Golini, as Head of the Commercial Department. Mr. Golini came to Needham from Brookline High School, where he had been with the Commercial Department for the past seven years.

CURRICULUM

To tell the story of the curriculum of the Needham Public Schools would be to write a book. For an annual report, even to summarize that book might seem to be not only inappropriate, but impossible. However, there are aspects to curriculum revision and development that deserve attention.

The fundamental target in curriculum work is the organizing of content at each grade level so that it has greatest meaning in terms of fundamental goals. This means that committees of professional staff members must be enabled to develop basic "blueprints" so that the energies and talents of all teachers may be directed to creative and productive teaching.

Throughout the year members of the professional staff meet regularly to evaluate present curricula, to consider trends, to evaluate research and test results, and to suggest new, appropriate areas for study or concern that might have grown out of any of the preceding deliberations.

During the summer of 1963, committees of teachers again worked on resource units: this time in the fields of mathematics, English, and social studies. The finished units were distributed to all teachers at the appropriate grade level, and are currently in use.

In a further effort to keep all teachers aware of work being done throughout the year, a curriculum newsletter is prepared at least three times a year, and distributed to the staff. Communication of this kind helps not only to exchange necessary information, but also to share the excitement of work being done in the important area of curriculum.

OF GENERAL INTEREST

Outdoor education . . . In previous years, most sixth graders participated in an outdoor education program, centered at a camp in New Hampshire. The value of the instruction that they received and the quality of the camp personnel were unusually fine. However, in spite of the accepted values of this experience, problems of cost and demands made on school personnel precipitated a decision to change the program by eliminating the four-day camp experience away from school. Presently, efforts are being made to use natural resources, both in and around Needham, for enrichment in the natural sciences.

Modern Foreign Language . . . Pupils who had started the study of French in the third grade and successfully continued that study through elementary school reached grade seven in September of 1963. These students studied French three periods each week. Emphasis continued on the aural-oral approach, although in grade seven they further developed their skill in reading and writing the language. When these pupils reach grade nine, they will be tested to see how their fluency and precision in the language relates to other students who have studied the language only at the high school level.

Advanced Placement Physics . . . Because of a demand for an advanced course in physics, the School Committee authorized the inclusion of such a course in the curriculum. Through fortunate circumstances, Dr. Kenneth J. Jones, a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Harvard University, was able to make adjustments in his university research schedule to permit part-time teaching at Needham High School.

Summer School . . . On June 26 of 1963 a Needham Summer School opened for the first time, with an enrollment of 245 pupils. Under the direction of the Needham Public School Committee, the summer school was self-sustaining insofar as salaries and supplies were concerned. Enrollment was restricted to high school students. The curriculum consisted of courses in each of the major subject fields, the fine arts, developmental reading, personal-use typing, and driver education.

In spite of an extended period of extreme summer heat, the summer school was a success. Plans are presently being developed for a second summer school in 1964. In addition to the regular secondary school curriculum, it is expected that some special courses may be developed for elementary school pupils.

Adult Education . . . Courses in adult education continued to be popular with a number of citizens in the town. In the fall of 1963 a variation in scheduling was made. Two morning classes were offered in sewing and art for mothers who found free time while their children were in school. Among the regular courses offered by the School Committee, typing, bookkeeping, and speed reading seemed the most popular. However, citizens should know that other courses are available. If there is an interest in starting a new course, arrangements may be made by communicating with the co-ordinator of adult education.

Centennial . . . In 1864 the high school was authorized in Needham. In May of 1865 the first class was enrolled and registered. This means that the entering class in 1965 will open the second century of Needham High School, and the graduating class of 1965 will conclude the first century. It has been decided, therefore, that a Centenary Committee should be formed to plan special programs during the school year 1964-1965. Further announcements will be made in early 1964.

Group and Inter-personal Relations Education . . . The Needham Public Schools continue to pioneer in the field of group and inter-personal relations education. Approximately three years ago, with the help of a grant from the Simons-Gutman Foundation, a seminar concerned with the field of human relations was started. Since that time special efforts have been made to encourage members of the professional staff to study in this field of inter-related disciplines.

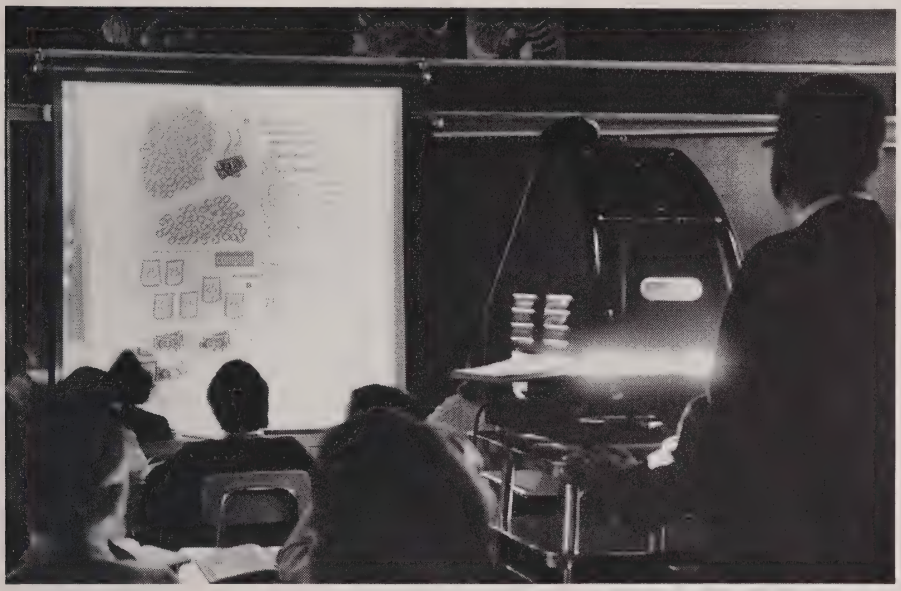
As part of the program, administrative staff members have participated in weekend conferences concerned with problems of communication, leadership, and role function. While such intensive away-from-work conferences have been utilized for the improvement of management techniques in business, this practice has been somewhat unusual in the field of education.

School and College Conference on English . . . In February the Needham High School was invited to membership in the above named organization. The Conference is a limited organization of selected colleges and secondary schools, whose purpose is to provide a forum for the discussion of the problems of articulation between secondary schools and colleges, and the problems of teaching English.

Cuisenaire Rods . . . Visitors continued to come to the Needham elementary schools to witness the use of Cuisenaire rods in primary grades and to evaluate the effectiveness of this aid to the teaching of mathematics.

Visitations . . . That education extends beyond the classroom may be seen from a partial list of places to which classes went: Museum of Science, Museum of Fine Arts, Higgins Armor Museum, Freedom Trail, Plimoth Plantation, Longfellow's Home, and numerous other places of historical interest in and around Boston.

Instructional Aids . . . Audio-visual aids is a well established educational field. However, occasionally something happens to remind us of the freshness of discovery. For example, a teacher wrote, as he talked about the use of his overhead projector, "It gives the teacher flexibility in presenting visual material that is not possible with the use of the chalk board, pictures, diagrams or charts, or any of the other more conventional tools. It is true that I have had to spend a great deal of time in the preparation of transparencies, but I am sure that my students have benefited from a better understanding of the basic concepts which I have been trying to teach."



Instructional aid . . . Mr. Leo P. Dauwer is shown using an opaque projector with his sixth grade class at the Hillside School.

Teacher Education . . . That a teacher's work year extends well beyond what most people think of as a school year may be seen in random selections made from the list of teacher summer activities: Attendance at a National Science Foundation Institute at Colorado State University in advanced chemistry; at Wellesley College on a National Science Foundation grant to study the cellular approach of the biological science curriculum study; at Holy Cross College on a National Science Foundation grant to study cytology in the molecular approach of the Biological Science Curriculum Study; at Simmons College on a National Science Foundation grant to study micro-biology and enzyme chemistry; and a third and final expedition to the Yucatan Peninsula to make a documentary film concerning plant and animal life and the geology peculiar to that region.

A Trend . . . From the reports of the Directors of Mathematics and Science came an interesting observation that apparently the new emphasis on science and mathematics is having its effect. During the past three years enrollment in the broad fields of science and mathematics has increased. This is particularly interesting because many of these courses are elective.

An Amendment . . . In the fall of 1963 the School Committee was informed that it must pay the tuition of Needham residents, regardless of age or previous education, who were enrolled in state-approved vocational schools. Because of its concern over this type of assessed cost to a local community, the School Committee has filed a bill to eliminate the liability of the local community for the payment of tuition for further vocational education for students who have already completed high school.

CONCLUSION

This then, in part, represents some of the activities of the Needham Public Schools during the calendar year of 1963. Other media will be used to tell the larger story and to explain curricular developments that are of particular interest. In the meantime, what happens in each classroom day by day will explain far better than words the concern of the staff of the Needham Public Schools for quality education for each child.

This department administers the 5 categories of relief in the welfare programs of Medical Assistance to the Aged, Old Age Assistance, Aid to Dependent Children, Disability Assistance, and General Relief. The federal government reimburses the town for the larger portion of expenditures in all categories of relief except General Relief which is largely a TOWN expense.

The STATE also reimburses the town in the four categories one-half to two-thirds of the remainder and additional reimbursements from other towns and individuals amounts usually to 80 to 85% of our total expenditures.

As an example, the Town Report of 1962 indicates a Budget of $133,650:

Department Expenditures ..	$236,213.	Federal Reimbursement	$111,182.
Reimbursements	201,868.	State and other Reimbursement	90,686.
Net Cost to Town	$ 34,345.

Federal reimbursements are held in a separate fund and may be spent only by this department.

State and other reimbursements are in the General Fund of the town and may be spent for any purpose but are generally used by the Assessors to reduce the tax levy in the succeeding year.

Our expenditures are increasing proportionately with our caseload and added social service required by amendments to the Social Security Act plus increase to salaries each year under the Welfare Compensation Plan.

Both of our Social Workers have attended lectures or taken courses on Social Welfare to meet additional requirements of their service.

The board is concerned about sound business principles of administration and office procedure essential for continuous evaluating of the department's operations to assure high quality of service.

In order that the TOWN may visualize the necessary statistical work in this department we list below from the accountant's records the detailed expenses of each category of relief for 11 months through November 30, 1963. December figures are not yet available.

	Salaries	Assistance	Expenses	Capitol Outlay
Medical Assistance to the Aged	$10,960.91	$123,630.61	$ 793.45	$173.45
Old Age Assistance	8,742.79	77,491.89	602.64	132.32
Aid to Dependent Children	1,342.52	3,841.20	150.97	33.08
Disability Assistance	1,414.86	15,422.88	190.46	41.35
General Relief	464.63	3,476.88	150.73	33.08
Totals	$22,925.71	$223,863.46	$1,888.25	$413.28

11 Months total $249,090.70 Expenditures.

We would estimate a 12 month total of $270,000. and total reimbursement of approximately $225,000.

The department has lost the services of Dr. Willgoose who resigned as Medical Advisor to our director in May, and we have had one of our clerk stenographers resign to accept a higher salaried position elsewhere, but this department has been able to keep up their social and statistical work by extra efforts of the entire staff. We are most grateful for the continued co-operation of the doctors, hospital, Health Department, Visiting Nurse Association, and individuals who have co-operated so generously in our medical and social service to the community.

Public Works

LESTER C. HOLLIS, Superintendent

	Employees	Available Funds	Expenditures
1960	98	$1,448,416.	$1,281,305.
1961	100	1,393,205.	1,161,278.

1963	100	1,471,110.	1,317,461.

This year marked the thirtieth anniversary of the consolidation of all powers of the Board of Selectmen with the powers of the Water, Sewer, Park Commissioners and of the Tree Warden; abolishing such boards and officers and thereby exercising such powers under the supervision and direction of the selectmen, acting as a Board of Public Works.

Procedure for such organization was authorized under Chapter 189 of the 1932 Acts (adopted by the town March 13, 1933) whereby the selectmen, acting as a board of public works, appointed a superintendent to administer such departments under their control as they may from time to time designate.

Acceptance of Chapter 21 of the 1955 Legislative Acts by vote of the town March 7, 1955 transferred the powers of the Park Commissioners from the Board of Selectmen. Since that time the Public Works Department has continued to perform some work as has been required from time to time as requested by the Park Commissioners under a co-operative basis from funds as provided in both budgets.

Full time employees, as classified under the Personnel By-Law for the various divisions, remains at 100, as during past years, assisted by 2 part-time clerks, 4 Engineering students, 1 Forestry student and 21 other students employed during the summer months.

ENGINEERING DIVISION

H. Gordon Martin, Town Engineer

The office of Town Engineer has charge of all surveys, field notes, plans, engineering documents, and records. The Engineering Division also makes surveys for all public works projects, laying out of streets and land takings, performs necessary computations and design, prepares plans, provides engineering supervision and inspection, keeps records of work done, calculates betterment assessments, checks building permits, provides engineering assistance to the Needham Planning Board and other municipal agencies and departments, keeps up-to-date and publishes town maps, and furnishes information to town residents and the general public.

In 1963, plans, including field surveys, calculations, design and verification of ownership, and of mortgage holders were made for ten streets for acceptance by the town, with a combined length of 11,835 feet; contract plans were prepared for two streets, and continuous engineering inspection and supervision was provided during their construction.

Twelve sewer plans were made, including surveys, design and verification of ownership, as well as eight construction plans, and again inspection and engineering assistance was provided for the 2.63 miles of sewers and 1.2 miles of drains. Sewer, street and sidewalk assessments were calculated. Seven drain plans and six easement-taking plans were made, and eight assessors' plans redrawn or brought up-to-date. Building permits were checked, house numbering plans for new streets were made, and numbers were assigned for all new homes, business and industrial buildings.

Work on drainage studies and preliminary surveys for sewer extensions are in progress. These are continuous projects, used in long-range planning of the expansion of Needham's sewer and drain system.

The Needham town map was brought up to date and printed. Copies are available in the office of the Town Clerk.

FORESTRY DIVISION

Robert L. Yokes, Divisional Superintendent

The Forestry Division is responsible for the care and maintenance of all public shade trees. These duties consist of the following: planting, removal, application of insecticides, fungicides, and herbicides, pruning and general maintenance.

Approximately 700 trees were planted on accepted town streets plus replacements where trees were removed. The severe drouth curtailed the fall planting schedule with very few trees being planted.

The Shade Tree Laboratory in Amherst, confirmed only 7 Dutch Elm diseased trees for Needham in 1963. This is a decrease from the previous year and isolation along with prompt removal of diseased trees are the main reasons for this decrease.

The Forestry Division has adopted a new policy in the application of insecticides. Only after close observation and needs determined are chemicals applied in control measures.

The decline of Maple Disease was responsible for the removal of many sugar maples. The exact cause of this disease is still unknown.

Many more trees were removed for street and sidewalk construction. Construction on Great Plain Avenue under Chapter 90 was responsible for the removal of over 40 trees.

Application of a chemical to inhibit the growth of roadside grass was instituted and this resulted in a considerable saving to the town in mowing costs.

The deep freeze with no snow cover caused the death of many trees, mainly those that were planted in the fall of1962. The only consolation from this freeze was that it caused the destruction of many insects and the Japanese Beetle in the adult stage was noticeably absent during the summer.

Highway reservations and some park areas were maintained by this division. The park work is done in cooperation with the Park and Recreation Commission.

HIGHWAY DIVISION

Robert A. MacEwen, Divisional Superintendent

The Highway Division has just completed one of its busiest Decembers in history. Five full scale plowing operations were required over a span of twenty-five days to combat twenty-four inches of snow. A total of sixty inches of snow fell in 1963 which, despite the seemingly open winter, is considerably more than our forty-two inch yearly average. The price we pay in New England for snow removal is a dear one and will continue to be if we are to accomodate the taxpayers' demands for bare pavements during the winter season. A major storm falling on a weekend could cost as much as $1500. an inch for plowing and removal. Inclement weather is no longer a deterrant to the driving public, and to the Highway Division falls the task of maintaining proper road conditions throughout the winter months. Needham's Highway Division is using greater amounts of chemical mixtures this year to achieve bare pavement conditions as soon as possible after a storm. These mixtures are costly and this high cost is not offset by the resultant savings in sand and abrasives. The Highway Division directs 55 regular employees and 11 hired contractors to plow 130 miles of streets and 60 miles of sidewalks.

Under its maintenance program the Highway Division surfaced fourteen miles of roadway, constructed two miles of new sidewalks, resurfaced two miles of existing sidewalks, erected and painted over one mile of permanent highway guard fence and erected or replaced over two hundred street name and traffic signs.

The adoption of the Pedestrian Control Law has brought about the need for traffic signal revisions which will be completed in 1964.

Pavement marking standards have changed requiring a more elaborate and detailed delineation of roadway markings.

The Equipment Replacement Program continued with the purchase of 4 dump trucks, 2 sedans, 3 pickup trucks, 1 leaf collector, 1 mist sprayer, 1 brush chipper and 1 asphalt spreader. The Town of Needham enjoys the reputation of having one of the best maintained equipment fleets in the Commonwealth, a reputation made possible by a good replacement program and conscientious maintenance personnel.

SEWER DIVISION

Edmund A. Symonds, Divisional Superintendent

The reconstruction of the West Street Sewer Station was practically completed in 1963 and the capacity of this station should be adequate for the next few years. The addition of another larger pump in the future will be a relatively easy job as the major basic alterations are completed.

About two and one half miles of sanitary sewer mains and slightly over one mile of storm drains were constructed during the year. This represents a definite falling off in construction from previous years.

Two hundred and sixty-two new connections were made which also is a slight decline from the year before. Of approximately 7500 dwellings in the town about 5500 are now connected to the sewer system.

Maintenance and operation of the sewer and drain systems are becoming more of a problem each ensuing year with the consequent increase in manpower and machinery necessary to keep the systems operating properly.

WATER DIVISION

Roger G. Oakman, Superintendent of the Water Division and Assistant Superintendent of Public Works

This year was a very busy one due to the pumping demands and water main replacement program.

We pumped a total of 1,116,084,000 gallons of water of which 339,330,000 gallons were purchased from the Metropolitan District Commission.

During the Week of June 23rd we pumped a total of 46,334,000 gallons of water, an increase of 27% over any similar period, reaching a peak of 8,204,000 gallons on June 26th. Again, during the month of October, we pumped a total 94,581,000 gallons of water, an increase of 30% over any previous October.

We replaced a total of 2994 feet of 6-in. and 8-in. mains in Wellesley Avenue, Sunnyside Road, Maple Street and Gage Street, including 18 fire hydrants. Due to the reconstruction of Great Plain Avenue, it was necessary to relocate all of the fire hydrants, many of the gates and most of the house connections. A good many of these have been in service for about 70 years.

A total of 5706 feet of 6-in. and 8-in. mains, and 10 fire hydrants were extended into new developments and private ways.

Three new sprinkler systems were connected, a total of 153 services, an increase of 10% over that of last year, were installed to new houses.

We had six major breaks in the distribution system in addition to 6 fire hydrants damaged by cars.

Receipts (exclusive of income from Trust Funds and the Contributory Retirement Fund) and disbursements each average more than $1,000,000 a month. $245,163 of Trust Funds are administered by the Treasurer under the supervision of the Commissioners of Trust Funds. The Treasurer has joint custody of the investments of the Contributory Retirement System and acts as its treasurer.

In 1964 the town must appropriate $654,000 for principal payments on funded debt and $190,967 for interest on funded debt. There were no bonds issued in 1963. Due to circumstances the $800,000 bond issue authorized for the hospital addition was held in abeyance. Four temporary borrowings aggregating $2,000,000 were necessary in anticipation of tax revenue. Your Treasurer was able to invest $500,000 of 1963 tax receipts in U. S. Treasury Bills due February 20, 1964.

The state is now preparing your Motor Excise Tax bills at the Registry of Motor Vehicles by electronic data processing. The first commitment of bills was not received locally until July 14. At the end of 1963 about 16,000 bills were in process of collection. Earlier collection of part of the $800,000 due from this source would have obviated the necessity for some of our borrowing. However, the 1964 bills should be processed by April, thus improving our current cash position. Henceforth taxpayers should expect to receive their Motor Excise Tax bills early in the year right after registration. The Poll Tax has been abolished by the State Legislature effective January 1, 1964.

FIRE ALARM BOXES

(This is an official list of fire alarm boxes as provided by the Fire Department. In the event of a fire the alarm sounds the first number of the box followed by a pause, followed by the next number of the box, and so on. Thus an alarm from box 12, Needham Square, would sound: BLAST. Pause. TWO BLASTS. Keep this list handy for ready reference!)

TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS ANNUAL TOWN MEETING FOR THE

March 18, 1963

Pursuant to a Warrant issued by the Selectmen January 22, 1963 the Inhabitants of the Town of Needham qualified to vote in Town affairs met in the William Pollard Junior High School on Monday, March 18, 1963, at 7:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The checkers appointed by the Selectmen were sworn to the faithful performance of their duties by the Town Clerk.

Check lists were used and 480 voters were checked on the list as being present. There were 254 Town Meeting Members present.

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 o'clock P.M. by the Moderator, Richard P. Melick. Those present stood and joined Mr. Henry Heald in singing the national anthem, accompanied by Mrs. Derwood A. Newman at the piano. Senior Girl Scout Jo-Ellen Hanson and Eagle Scout Allen Hartwell presented the colors.

Rev. Mark H. Keohane of St. Bartholomew Church offered a prayer for the guidance of the Town Meeting Members. Following this, the call to the meeting and the officer's return were read by the Town Clerk, the reading of the Articles in the warrant being waived upon motion.

The Chair ruled that a quorum was present enabling the meeting to conduct its business. The following Town Meeting Members were appointed and sworn in as tellers — James E. Cruickshank, Julius T. Fedel, J. Samuel Slicer and Meyer J. Gordon.

Mr. Melick announced the following ground rules which he intended to follow:

1. The Moderator will accept a motion to dismiss or a motion to postpone indefinitely.
2. A speaker will be ruled out of order who refers to personalities or reflects upon the motives of another.
3. A speaker will rise to be recognized and speak his name, when recognized.
4. Time limit for debate will be as follows:
   15 minutes to a Committee Chairman
   10 minutes to a Town Meeting Member and an Attorney representing a petitioner.
   5 minutes to a Non-Town Meeting Member and an Attorney representing other than a petitioner.

The Moderator presented item 4 as a motion to be voted by the Town Meeting. No objection being heard to the motion the Moderator ruled that the procedure outlined in said item would be the means of procedure for this meeting.

The Chair stated that there were two articles in which the proponents no longer had an interest and requested dismissal of same. The Articles referred to were 12 and 44. The Moderator asked if any Town Meeting Members objected to the dismissal of these two articles. Mr. Robert F. Day stated he objected to the dismissal of Article 44. There was no objection to the dismissal of Article 12 and the Moderator declared that Article 12 was dismissed by unanimous vote.

Referring to his memorandum of March 8th, which was mailed to each Town Meeting Member, the Moderator stated that it was his intention to call each article in numerical order. Any Town Meeting Member who wished to discuss an article was asked to respond either "question" or "debate" when that number was called. Those articles to which no response was indicated should be ultimately adopted by unanimous vote. The Moderator asked if there was any objection to this procedure. Hearing none the chair stated the meeting would proceed in this manner. Before calling the articles the Moderator requested that the word "question" be used where clarification was desired and the word "debate" be used when opposition or a substitute motion would be offered.

The memorandum stated the articles which appeared to be noncontroversial and routine. The Moderator proceeded to call each article in the warrant by number commencing with Article 3. No Town Meeting Member responded with "question" or "debate" to the following articles:

3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 11, 13, 14, 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 25, 27, 28, 30, 36, 54, 56, 63, 79, 82 and 83.

The Moderator called each of these above mentioned articles by number and no objection was heard to adoption by unanimous consent. The Moderator stated that the Town Counsel had filed copies of an affirmative motion for each article with the Town Clerk on March 12th, and that those motions had been available for public scrutiny since that date. It was moved that all affirmative motions for the above-mentioned articles be adopted by unanimous consent. It was so unanimously voted and the Town Clerk was requested to so record. As a result thereof, said articles and the votes thereunder are as follows:

ARTICLE 3. To hear and act on the reports of Town Officers and Committees.

Mr. Hector D. Scull announced he was speaking as an attorney representing Maley's Inc. He requested that Articles 39 and 40 be discussed together. Mr. John J. Gill of the Planning Board stated that his Board desired the privilege of discussing Article 39 independently. Mr. Scull's motion failed to pass.

There was an extended discussion as to the amount of money at which the land had been appraised for the Planning Board and the eventual amount the Town might have to pay for this land if taken by eminent domain. Various speakers called attention to the necessity of expanding the Town Hall facilities. Mr. Scull offered a substitute motion. After an extended discussion Mr. Colburn moved the previous question which motion was adopted. Mr. Scull's motion was presented and it did not pass.

MOVED: That the matter set forth in Article 39 of the Warrant be referred to a committee to be established by the Town; the committee to be instructed to examine the need of additional municipal office facilities; where in the Town, the additional municipal office facilities, if any, are to be located; and the need, if any, of acquisition of any land for the said facilities and to report with its recommendations to the 1964 Annual Town Meeting; the said committee to be appointed as follows:

One by the Selectmen
One by the Planning Board
One by the Finance Committee

One by the Board of Assessors
One by the Land Acquisition Committee
Two by the Moderator

The Chair recognized Mr. Charles E. Downe to offer a substitute motion at this time. This substitute motion provided a different manner in which to raise the $77,000. Mr. Neal Jacobs stated that he did not feel $77,000.00 was a realistic figure. He felt the proper figure was $101,250.00 which should be taken from the 1963 tax levy. At this point the Moderator stated there were three motions on the floor. — Mr. Gill's motion for $77,000 — Mr. Downe's motion which amends Mr. Gill's motion in regard to the manner in which the money is to be raised and Mr. Jacob's motion to read $101,250.00 from the 1963 tax levy. There was further discussion. Mr. Jacobs' amendment was presented and it did not carry.

MOVED: That the $77,000.00 from the tax levy be increased to $101,250.00 from the tax levy.

Mr. Downe's amendment was then presented. When put to a vote the amendment did not carry.

MOVED: That the sum of $77,000. be raised and appropriated for the purpose of said acquisition as follows:

By transfer from either or both of the existing Meter Funds	$15,000.00
By transfer from the Excess and Deficiency Fund	50,000.00
From the 1963 Tax Levy	12,000.00
	$77,000.00

The original motion by Mr. Gill was put to a vote. A count of hands was taken and the result was YES 116 — NO 105. As this required a two-thirds vote, it did not pass.

MOVED: That the Selectmen, on behalf of the Town, be, and they hereby are, authorized and empowered to acquire by purchase or by taking by eminent domain, for the purpose of Town Hall and grounds, the fee simple in a certain parcel of land, together with the buildings thereon, situated in Needham, being presently numbered 74 and 78 Chapel Street, and 1445 Highland Avenue, supposed to be owned by John W. Fitzgerald and Eleanor C. Fitzgerald, husband and wife, and bounded and described as follows:

Easterly by Highland Avenue, 107.40 feet;
Southerly by land of the Town of Needham, 139.15 feet;
Westerly by Chapel Street, 108.14 feet; and Northerly by land now or formerly of Locke, 126.48 feet.

Containing 14,246 square feet of land, more or less, and being shown on a plan by Lester C. Hollis, Town Engineer, dated December 1929, and recorded with Norfolk Deeds in Book 1888, page 281, together with all outstanding easements or rights of way over said premises for the purpose of extinguishment of the same; and that the sum of $77,000.00 be raised and appropriated for the purpose of said acquisition.

(This article was reconsidered on March 25th.)

Mr. Gill requested a roll call vote. The Moderator stated that because of the hour and the outcome of the vote he would deny the request.

At 10:57 o'clock P.M. Mr. Clarke Wertheim moved that this Town Meeting be adjourned to Monday evening, March 25, 1963 at 7:30 P.M. at the Pollard High School and it was so voted.
